SUMMARY

Arrolynn and Takerie make a formidable duo in the world of treasure recovery. But when Arrolynn makes a dangerous mistake on a job, the pair find themselves strapped for cash and low on fuel during a worldwide energy crisis. Add to that a high-stakes bet on a ticking clock, and they're walking a razor's edge. This isn't what Arrolynn wanted. Her priority in life is taking care of her best friend Takerie, the AI of the high-tech airplane she lives in. Although for Arrolynn, money and clothes are a close second. This next gig to rescue a kidnapped princess—from the one place Arrolynn had sworn never to return to—will solve all their problems. Or so she thinks. Suddenly, Arrolynn finds herself trapped in a web of lies and political intrigue, navigating deceptions, betrayals, and assassins. One misstep will cost her everything she holds dear—including her turbulent feelings for the person she loves.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

I'm Jessica. I've written science fiction and fantasy novels, all with clean romance and a happily ever after. In fact, my next book has a little science fiction AND fantasy in it... along with a clean romance and happily ever after. I like to keep that part consistent.

All of my books are available on Amazon in e-book and paperback format. Please enjoy!
