SUMMARY

Dean is an operative for the Overlord. Tara is the agent hunting him. In second period physics, they're lab partners. Neither knows the other's secret identity. Tara keeps thwarting Dean's plans to help his uncle take over the city. To stay the Overlord's right-hand-man, Dean needs to do more than swipe jewels and vandalize buses. His assignment to kidnap a lead scientist from the Agency is his opportunity to prove himself. But Tara will do whatever it takes to stop him. When Dean discovers Tara and his sworn enemy are the same person, he must keep his date to the dance from catching him. If he fails, the girl he loves will throw him in jail-or the Overlord will make him "disappear."
